

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

To my son, HENRY CARVER, a graduate of Yale University of Class 1883, and of the Law Department of the University of Pennsylvania of Class 1886, and now practicing law in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, this work is respectfully dedicated.

WILLIAM CARVER

JOHN CARVER and MARY LANE, his wife, came from Hartford, England, with William Penn, in the ship "Welcome," of three hundred tons burden; Robert Greenaway was master. One hundred persons, it is said, embarked September 11, 1682, at Deal, England, and arrived in the river Delaware the 28th day of the 8th month, 1682 (old style). Ninety-five of the one hundred persons who embarked have been accounted for. There is another person by the name of Roland, whose name appears in a little book in the Register's Office at Doylestown, making ninety-six.

Joseph Carver, Jacob Carver, and William Carver came in the ship "Samson," about the same time.

They were all members of the religious Society of Friends and settled in Byberry, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. They took up a tract of land there and dug a cave in which they lived until they built a house.

The old farm remained in the family, and in the name of John Carver, for five successive generations.

Joseph Carver married and moved to North Carolina, near Carver's Creek. Jacob died unmarried.

William Carver, the first of our American ancestry, married 11th month 14, 1689 (old style), at Middletown Monthly Meeting of Friends, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Joan Kinsey, a descendant of Chief Justice Kinsey (see Middletown Monthly Meeting of Friends' Minutes). She having died, he, in 1723, married at Falls, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Grace Carter (see Minutes of Falls Monthly Meeting), a widow, whose maiden name was Paxson, from Bristol, England (see Will Book No. 1, page 44, at Doylestown). He had one child by her, named Hannah. William Carver died at Byberry, Philadelphia County, in May, 1736. His will is recorded at Philadelphia, in Will Book E, page 369, June 2, 1736. Grace Carver, his widow, died in 1737. Her will is recorded at Philadelphia, in Will Book F, page 42, in 1737. She left the most of her estate to her son, Robert Carter.

William Carver, a son of the first William and Joan, his wife, married in 1719, Elizabeth Walmsley, a daughter of Henry Walmsley and Mary Searle, his wife, who was a daughter of Francis Searle. Henry Walmsley was the younger son of Thomas Walmsley and Elizabeth, his wife, who came from Yorkshire, England, in the ship "Welcome," with William Penn, in 1682.

Thomas Walmsley and Mary, his wife, by their Indenture, dated December 16, 1735, and recorded in Deed Book No. 184, page 308, conveyed to the said William Carver, 235 acres and 22 perches of land in Buckingham Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, a little way easterly from Forest Grove. He was the first Carver who settled in Bucks County. He died in Buckingham Township, in January, 1759. His will is recorded at Doylestown, in Will Book No. 2, page 353, January 30, 1759. His widow, Elizabeth, died in Warwick Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, in February, 1772.

The family has a Coat of Arms and a Motto: Conjunctio firmat—"union strengthens."

PLAN OF THE BOOK

Each of the children of William Carver¹ will be found at the head of one of the branches of the family tree.

The generation to which each person belongs will be known by the small figure on the right of a name.

At a marriage the number is put in parenthesis () for distinction.

Successive generations will be understood by the given names with their generations as found in the book, which read from right to left, as follows :

(Joseph³, William², William¹.)

KEY TO ABBREVIATIONS

A small b. for born ; d. for died ; m. for married ; unm. for unmarried ; mo. for month.

FOR DATES

1754, 12 mo. 15, is December 15, 1754 ; the first figure for the month.

Samuel Harrold, the name of the first of the Harrolds of whom we have any record, was born in Normandy, France. He held a lieutenant-colonel's commission in King William's army, and served in several battles in England and Ireland. Among other engagements, he was present and active at the famous Battle of the Boyne in 1690, July 1st (old style), where he lost one of his legs by a cannon ball. For this service in the army, King William gave him a grant of land in County Cavan, Ireland, where he settled, married, and raised one son named William, who, when he was grown, married into a family by the name of Elliott. William had but one child to survive him named Samuel, born in 1728. He came to America at the age of seventeen and married a lady by the name of Russell, by whom he had seven children, five boys and two girls. His wife died in 1777. He afterwards married Rachel Carver, widow of Henry, whose maiden name was Smith; by her he had two children, David and Rebecca (see Nos. 32 and 33, page 3).

- (520.) Edward Eastburn⁶—another son of Mary Carver and Samuel Eastburn her husband—was born in Solebury, Pa., in 1831, 1st month 9; went before he was 21 years old to New Orleans. There he became acquainted with a young Scotchman who was a tanner and currier. They walked from there to the southern part of Alabama where they bought one acre of land for about $2.50, taking nearly all their money. They went to work like northern men, sinking vats, asking people to trust them till they got leather tanned and sold, and they would then pay all their debts. They were trusted. In a short time they had quite a tan yard, paid their debts, bought other land, built tenant houses on it for tenants, got shoemakers to make the leather up and became quite well off when the War of the Rebellion was threatening. They then closed up their business and separated. Edward was forced into the Rebel Army, made his escape; went into Arkansas where he was pursued as a deserter, but was not caught. He went into Mexico, bought a large quantity of cotton and hauled it to the City of Mexico and sold it there. He bought large droves of cattle and sold them in Kansas. He finally settled in Jacksboro, Jack Co., Texas. He became wealthy, worth over a half a million of dollars. He traveled a great deal over the United States and in Europe, and died in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., August 20, 1900, when on a visit.
